OMB No. 2577-0226
(exp. 08/31/2009)

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

Violence Against Women Act of 2005 (Public Law 109-162) (VAWA)

The Fulton County Housing Authority (HA) has implemented applicable provisions of the Violence Against Women Act of 2005.

A. The following activities, services, or programs are provided by the HA, either directly or in partnership with other service providers, to child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking:

The HA will provide a list of other service providers that may be able to assist client families dealing with various forms of domestic violence.

B. The following activities, services, or programs are provided or offered by the HA to help child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, to obtain or maintain housing:

None

C. The following activities, services, or programs are provided by the HA to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, or to enhance victim safety in assisted families:

The HA will provide a list of other service providers that may be able to assist client families dealing with various forms of domestic violence.

The HA has procedures in place to assure that both applicants for and participants of the assistance program are notified of their rights under VAWA.

Applicants are notified of their rights under VAWA when they complete the Full Application for the eligibility interview. The two-page VAWA notification is included as part of the Full Application and is discussed and signed during the eligibility interview.

Current participants are notified of their rights under VAWA in the 'Interview Guide for Annual Recertification' packet, which is discussed in person annually during the annual recert interview.

All letters sent to applicants/participants relating to denial/termination related to prohibited violent activity includes the following "If you are being denied/terminated from the program based on incidents of violent criminal activity, you may have protection provided by the Violence Against Women Act of 2005. In this case, you must contact our office to discuss documentation you must provide affirming that the cause of the unfavorable criminal history is that a member of your family is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking."
